THE MESSAGES OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE AND THE FINAL WARNINGS...

WHO WE ARE?

On December 28th of the year 1989, in the City of Buenos Aires, several Catholics who wished to fulfil their duties as such and who felt they were called to WORK FOR THOSE IN NEED, decided to group together in what they called "FUNDACION MISERICORDIA DIVINA, Asociación de Laicos Católicos" (Foundation of Divine Mercy, Association, of Lay Catholics). This institution has two aims: the First is the diffusion of the Catholic Faith and its defence in connection with the advance of SECTS, and the SECOND is the practice of the WORKS OF MERCY, giving preference to the poor, the afflicted and the sick. The "FUNDACION MISERICORDIA DIVINA, Asociación de Laicos Católicos" was created in accordance with the New Code of Canon Law (Latin Rite Version):

"CANON 215: The faithful have the RIGHT TO FOUND AND FREELY DIRECT associations for purposes of charity or piety or to promote Christian vocation in the world, and also to meet to procure said aims jointly.

CANON 216: Since all the faithful share in the mission of the Church, they have the right to promote and support apostolic action, WITH THEIR OWN INITIATIVES AS WELL.

CANON 225: Since by virtue of Baptism and Confirmation all lay Catholics, like all the other faithful, have been destined by God for apostolic work, they have the general obligation and the RIGHT, both personally and in ASSOCIATION, to work so that the divine message of salvation is known and received by all men in the whole world. This obligation is all the more pressing in those circumstances in which it is only through them that men will be able to hear the Gospel and get to know Jesus Christ.

Besides, it has the Apostolic Blessing given by His Holiness John Paul II on June 16th, 1990, which was reiterated in August, 1991.

THE NECESSARY FUNDS

As is the case with institutions for the public good and without profit motives, our cash assets come from donations made mostly by members of the Foundation and its Associated Protectors, who freely undertake to make anonymous contributions within their possibilities.

GENERAL STRUCTURE

- BOARD OF DIRECTORS
- GROUPS OF PRAYER (CENACLES) IN SQUARES AND FAMILY HOMES, AND DIFFUSION OF THE HOLY ROSARY.
- DIFFUSION OF THE DEVOTION TO THE DIVINE MERCY, AND DIFFUSION OF SEVERAL PUBLICATIONS ON THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
- HEADS IN CHARGE OF BRANCHES IN THE PROVINCES AND ABROAD.

OUR PUBLICATIONS

Part of the funds available are being currently allocated to various publications, such as the one you now have, which are aimed at promoting a greater knowledge of the Catholic Faith among ordinary people, and which are also aimed at promoting a better development of everyday life through high moral ideals. The following are available on request, (In Spanish only)

- Colour pictures of Merciful Jesus (different sizes) and of the Rosa Mystica.
- Prayer books with the history of the devotion to the Divine Mercy.
- Rosaries and leaflets with the prayers and explanations required to pray the Holy Rosary properly.
- Brief Initial catechism books for a better knowledge of our Catholic Religion.
- Audio and audio-visual cassettes on subjects of general interest.

Any other publication whose contents may serve the purposes of this Foundation.

For all these activities our characteristic logo is our identification.

A treasure within your reach...

because what you have in your hands is not just a magazine: in its pages you will find the true spiritual help you need so much. By simply glancing through its pages you will have, at all times, opportune advice, the right orientation, true peace.

How is this possible, you may ask yourself. The answer is simple: what you will find here are not articles or journalistic notes, they are Spiritual Messages for all Humanity that a soul, chosen by Heaven, receives In our country, Argentina. Do not hasten to reject them; read them first, in whichever order you wish - you do not need to read the pages in numerical order. For every need, look for the message that may help you. Do not hurry, read it calmly, meditate, and try to understand the profundity of what Merciful Jesus -it is He who speaks- wishes to tell You. Yes, to tell You, because His words are for You, to help you renew your life with the breath of the Holy Spirit and the blessing of the Most Holy Virgin Mary. Our effort can only go this far, now it is for you to do your share to profit from this encounter with God.

So start on this road in high spirits for it will open a completely new horizon in your life.

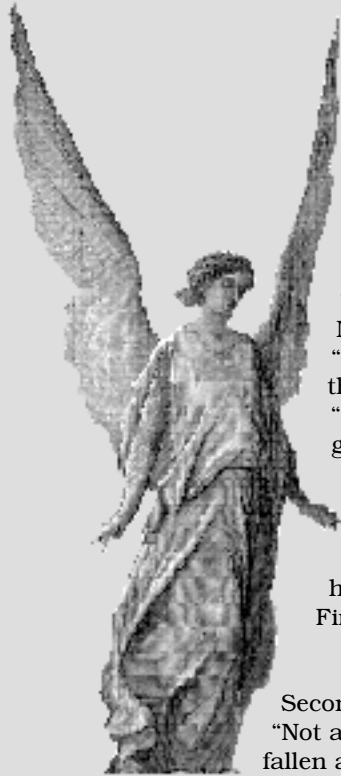

The Lord is here and wishes to speak to you, will you listen to Him?

HE DEALS WITH CURRENT MATTERS MASTERLY, AS HE ALONE CAN DO.

PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, Oh Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust down to hell Satan, and all the wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

“Grow under your Mother’s guidance!”

January 23rd, 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Well have I explained to you already that to gain admittance to the Kingdom of Heaven you will have to be born again... from on high, not by returning to your earthly mother’s womb but by allowing yourselves to be formed in the Heart of My Mother... your Mother. Just as you were fed in your mother’s womb before your birth, so will you now be fed My graces by Her. Just as you were protected during nine months, so will you now be protected by Her opportune intervention, which will deliver you from all enemies, both material and spiritual. And, finally, just as you saw the light on coming into this world, so will She show you the Light and the Way which, beginning in this world, ends in Heaven.

Be born again, then. Grow under your Mother’s guidance! Grow with holy things only... to endure what is to come! And remember all the time that if you do not become spiritually like little children, without hatred, without rancour, without falseness, without pride, there shall be no place for you in the Kingdom.

Have Peace. Receive My Blessing, which will bring you strength and Light, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer ‘Amen’.)

Always trust in Me: nothing is left to chance, everything is bound to My Will. Peace.

Romans, Chapter 11, verses 28 to 36.

“... time is short and the Mission great”

February 6th, 1998 (First Friday of the month)

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Listen attentively, so that as you listen you understand, and as you understand you will be able to put My mandates into practice. On the next first Friday of the month I wish there to be present here all those who have an authentic desire to hear My Voice and who, fulfilling the prescriptions of My Sanctuary, come here seeking to please Me, not out of mere curiosity but because they wish to commit themselves.

You have now before you a time until that moment arrives ... Therefore seek them out and bring them to accompany you. Instruct them, warn them, prepare them. I will speak to them in a direct way, as Teacher ... as Lord... as God of Love. Work now, seeking out for those who will be My guests, among which I will choose new disciples, for time is short and the Mission great.

Have peace. I bless you so that you may faithfully carry out what has been requested, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer ‘Amen’.)

You shall be the beneficiaries of a great Grace, but also responsible for these new presences here, in My Sanctuary. There will not always be an opportunity such as this one... Take advantage of it. Peace.

Psalms 62, verses 2 to 10.

“Love me, and I shall give you more and more...”

February 13th, 1998

Peace be with you sheep of My flock.

Not everyone who addresses Me saying, ‘Lord, Lord, hear me!’ will be attended to. If love does not reign in his heart, if he only remembers Me in need, in tribulation, but not in prosperity or in peace, if My name is invoked as a solution to his problems without commitment to My Commandments... I shall not lend My ears to that call. For if love has grown cold the rest will be of no avail to you, because if you say you love Me and you forget Me. if you say you serve Me and you make Me the victim of your whims, if you say you please Me and you only seek your own satisfaction... you will obtain nothing from Me.

Bear in mind this request always, and do not let love grow cold in your heart, for love and more love is necessary. Love Me, and I shall give you more and more, so much that you will be unable to restrain yourselves from transmitting this love around you. This is the true love your God needs in order to inflame the world, to fill the earth, to purify souls. Love your Lord with all your might and your neighbour for love of Me, and all the rest shall be granted to you.

Have peace. I bless you, receive My blessing and My graces in the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer ‘Amen’.)

Watch carefully how those who have not been here frequently comply with My Messages, for they may fall into error by allowing themselves to be guided by their own thoughts. Only one have I authorized to interpret My Word, and that one is here. Peace. St. John, Chapter 17, verses 20 to 26.

GOD WARNS ALL HUMANITY...

"...THROUGH THIS WORK YOU WILL RECEIVE THREE MESSAGES WHICH YOU WILL CALL OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE. Up to this day My words have formed you and may or may not reach remote places. These three Universal Messages must be delivered promptly for their diffusion at every level and in all aspects since, owing to their contents, they will be the Messages in charge of impelling the inner gears of Salvation still latent, and through them many will recognize the Truth that speaks and will reunite with Me. Do not ask when or where, just know that they will be three..." (May 21, 1988).

FIRST UNIVERSAL MESSAGE

August 15th, 1988.

... (Vision)... The Most Blessed Virgin Mary is with us, accompanied by her angels, and She has come today to bless us, and She especially wants us to hear and transmit what the Lord is going to say to us.

May My peace reach you, sheep of My flock.

What are you afraid of now, if I am with you? Have you not consecrated yourselves to My service? Well then, I occupy myself with defending you, looking after you and leading your souls to a good destination. Through many long years My Most Blessed Mother has descended on this earth, taking and bringing My Messages and Words and your petitions, and in spite of your great worldly deafness, I have listened to you and pleased you, with Love and Mercy; but you, like My people, have always gone astray.

Once more a new warning comes to you. I shall begin with My first committed, with My Church. Dear shepherds of My flock: you have been overly confident and you have slacked much in your obligations. This laxity has caused the Enemy to take part among the sheep and give blows, deadly at times, to several institutions which, having been meant for the salvation of souls, have become associations without any spirit, and you are all responsible. It is true that there are many of you that work to attain the Kingdom, but others have turned away towards distant horizons. My Enemy, the Devil, is no longer spoken about, nor is there any preaching about Eternal Fire heard. With their conscience thus reassured, the ordinary faithful lead a lukewarm life. IT IS THEREFORE NECESSARY THAT THIS CALL OF ALERT HEAVEN SENDS YOU BE LISTENED TO THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE WORLD. WARN THE PEOPLE: THE DEVIL REIGNS IN THE WORLD AND WANTS TO GET INTO MY CHURCH. Ir you do not defend My Work, if you do not defend My flock, who will?

This Enemy of souls would not care about the fact that My children suffer from hunger, cold or need, were it not a means of suggesting that they deny their God, a means of dulling their feelings and of preventing them from approaching what they are really interested in, KEEPING THEM AWAY FROM THE POSSIBILITY OF SALVATION.

It is true that I have a predilection for the poor, but above all for those who need spiritual richness. And you have before you a Pope as has never been seen. Obey him in everything, even in the tribulations to come, for if you see him you see Me, and if you hear him you are hearing Me, and if you deny his teachings you deny Me and are not of My Church.

Watch in religious institutions: those who hold positions of power must be the ones that cultivate spirituality most. Do not allow interference, you are My eyes. But today I announce to you a total triumph over the forces of the Enemy, with those who whole-heartedly adhere to the work of the salvation of souls performed by the Holy Catholic Church, to which you belong. For with ten, with a thousand or with two, the Lord will triumph. Response is up to you.

And as for you, incredulous world, who remain on the sidelines attempting to judge without wanting to take sides, I warn you: you have placed your firmness in money, in pleasure, in political power, and all that will disappear together with those who are bound to those false gods.

What you are listening to is not a menace of man! In all My interventions since the world began, have I ever applied My punishment, imposed My Justice, without warning you first of this step? Well then, this is the previous step. All your faults and sins weigh upon you. IF YOU DO NOT DO RIGOROUS PENANCE AND MAKE SACRIFICE, YOU WILL HEAR THE VOICE OF GOD THUNDER OVER YOUR HEADS. And I will give you the remedies for these wounds that all humanity suffers from: THE HOLY ROSARY AND THE CONSECRATION TO THE HEART OF MY MOTHER, THE EUCHARIST AND THE DOCTRINE OF DIVINE MERCY. All of this comprises the front that I will make against the forces the Enemy opposes. From this place in the world I will continue teaching, for I am a Teacher, as I am in other parts through different instruments, and those who wish to drink from the Fountain of Truth may come here to hear My Words. My Trust and My Love are placed in everyone who today comes forward and decides to follow Me.

From now on you will organize NINE VIGILS OF PRAYER, as from the next month's first Friday, after the time of the Holy Mass and until midnight, and you will receive nine moments of teaching like these. Everything you ask for in prayer will be granted to you. Look for the places for these gatherings of prayer, vigil and sacrifice, according to what is needed, Other indications I will give privately.

All the blessing and the Force of Heaven descend upon all of you congregated here, whether you believe or not, for the Lord makes the sun shine over just and unjust. Do not ignore the prophecies: keep that which produces good fruit. I bless you from My Merciful Heart. With My Most Holy Mother present here among you, I grant you peace and health in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Do not consider how I come to you but what I have brought you. Peace to all.

SECOND UNIVERSAL MESSAGE

August 13th, 1989

"Peace to you, sheep of My flock.

Taken in your accounting of time and according to your state, the moment to give the second warning has come, so you may know that your God follows the course of your history attentively.

My first announcement has not been properly heeded, especially in this country which, in spite of its being My chosen one, has ignored My call and only a small number have responded to the commitment My Word means. But in spite of this passing disobedience I again announce a UNIVERSAL MESSAGE. This is the second warning coming from your Lord; do not hesitate to obey His call, for He who makes it is Truth itself, and Truth knows all.

My Church, My children, is being decimated; its capacity to work for the construction of the Kingdom has been annihilated by sixty per cent. Many priests have apostatized secretly and keep a shell of piety and practices, but they are no longer Mine; understand this well, their hearts are corrupt and their souls are given over to the work of the Enemy. Errors have spread with hallucinating speed and many have adopted postures that harm the Mystical Body: the Commandments of My Law have been inverted, and love of neighbour has annulled or replaced love of God. That same word, love, is taught with plain, absolute sensuousness, with a hard and repugnant materialistic attitude, by many who should strengthen souls but who instead guide them to the poisonous pastures of false doctrines.

This wounded Mystical Body is going through its most critical time the world over: Europe has been razed, but from here the Lord will oppose that invasion of atheism and indolence if you know how to respond to My calls. Small, faithful groups are working secretly, as in early times, faithfully following the words of My Vicar on Earth. Here destruction has not yet been measured but coldness is already being felt, and rejection of the things of God is imminent. You will see then how they react when confronted with this. I will give you a sign: THERE WILL BE ANOTHER ATTEMPT ON MY VICAR'S LIFE. Be on the watch, for when that moment comes there will be little time left to gather the last sheep to enter the fold. I will give you another sign: THE GREAT COUNTRY OF THE NORTH WILL BE PUNISHED BY

THE FURY OF DIVINE JUSTICE: THE GLARE OF YOUR LORD WILL SPLIT ITS GEOGRAPHY DOWN THE MIDDLE, both as a last call and as punishment: as punishment because it has abandoned My Word; as a call on the faithful to be steadfast in their Hope. And here, My dear ones, in your country, where I have set up the columns of My Mercy, there will be blood..., there will be blood, My children, but have no fear, I am here among you.

This is the appeal from the Heart of your God. If you listen to My calls you will be able to delay the hour of punishment; if you let this moment pass the churches will become empty and sacrileges will be commonplace. I, the Lord, call on you priests, My chosen ones: see how many sacrilegious communions are received, day after day, because of undue preparation; see how many Sacraments are wasted owing to the lack of preparation of those who receive them, and the negligence of those whose obligation it is to prepare them. My Church is not built from behind a desk, My Church is built in prayer, in penance, in sacrifice and in the giving of oneself to the service of others for love of Me.

And you, faithful flock, will have to suffer very much because you follow your Master, but it will not be in vain, it will not be in vain, I guarantee, And this is the announcement that must be made known with the greatest speed, for it is the remedy that we will place before the work of the Devil. You must found the Secular Order of the Apostles of the Last Times, to which all those who follow My Words will belong, guided by my chosen priests, within a spirit of unity in the Holy Church. Remember: everywhere in the world My Mother and I are calling for an active apostolate; it is not only prayer, it is action. You are bearers of Grace, work accordingly. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

My Children, put your will at My service and everything will be achieved, do not become discouraged. I bless you. Receive the blessing from Him who loves you, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All say "Amen".)

My peace reign in your spirits. At the moment you are receiving Me in the Holy Eucharist remember, "Jesus, come to me, I love You", and I will be with you. Peace to you." Apocalypse, Chapter 3, verses 14 to 22.

"Not a single leaf, once fallen and parched, returns to the tree..."

January 9th, 1998 (First Friday of the month)

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Watch then how, when shaken by terrible winds, the hardy, strong tree lets go those leaves that are not perfectly adhered to it, or which are dry, and this is necessary for the sap and life to reach the other leaves and strengthen them. Thus, some will come off and fall, to die and be trampled on and, at the same time, others will grow green again and become stronger. See then My Work, shaken by the wind of temptation, of uncertainty, of lukewarmness... I allow then this shaking so that while it lasts, the dry, useless leaves may come off and not hinder the growth of the others, green, strong, that wish to live adhered to the trunk, which is I. I repeat to you, it is necessary for these winds to blow to discover which leaves will remain and which will perish. Have Peace. I bless you so that you obtain authentic strength and face the coming winds adhered to Me; receive My blessing in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, "Amen".)

Not a single leaf, once fallen and parched, returns to the tree Remember it well. Peace.

St. Luke, Chapter 3, verses 1 to 6.

“...no one can call himself my disciple if he has respect of persons...”

March 13th, 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock. Remember and bear My teachings in mind continually: no one can call himself My disciple if he has respect of persons. Treat everybody with humility, with meekness, with respect, with love. Be a consolation to those around you, be a comfort to the suffering, and thus you shall be the very reflections of My Merciful Heart. Leave the Message of My Love everywhere, be Mercy's living banner. Treat everybody with the same kindness of your God, who gives the sun and rain to all alike. Bear this in mind and you will grow spiritually.

Have peace. Receive My blessing; may it strengthen you and illuminate your way, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

There is always joy in the Kingdom of Heaven by reason of the sinners who convert, be they rich or poor, powerful or humble, of low birth or high... Be in that way and you shall obtain My blessing. Peace.

Jeremiah, Chapter 33, verses 14 to 26.

Translator's Note: “...si hace acepción de personas.”

“The time has come for new seed to be sown in the furrow...”

March 6th, 1998 (First Friday of the month).

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

The time has come for new seed to be sown in the furrow, and you are the labourers called to carry out this task, with determination and with care. I have chosen you among many: I have called you, I have attracted you to My Sanctuary and today I entrust you with the mission of propagating the devotion to the Divine Mercy with all the means available to you. So speak about My Heart opened by the lance, pouring out love over humanity; speak to all about Me, and thus you will be fulfilling the first part of your mission. If you have difficulties in your enterprise I will accompany you. Resort to Me, call Me and I will be there; open your heart and I will come to it with all My strength. Carry out this task now, while I watch you. Later on you will come back to Me and I will entrust you with new tasks. Do not run if you want to arrive at the right destination.

Have Peace. Your foreheads will be marked by My Archangels, and that sign, My Sign, will be for you a sign of protection. Receive My blessing in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

The steps you take on your own shall be sterile, but those you take following Mine shall yield abundant fruit. Peace.

St Luke, Chapter 21, verses 1 to 11.

“Keep in your hearts the teachings you have received and transmit them through your conduct”

March 20th, 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Trust and practise everything I have taught you through my instrument, for the Lord does not detach Himself from His commitment to him. I have given him the Grace to grant health of body and spirit to those who receive his blessing, and today I confirm this strength in his hands, provided it is used for edification, for peace, for good and to propagate My Messages. Thus, with assurance, he will be able to impose his hands on the sick and they will heal, and free those oppressed by evil spirits, for, in his presence, they will flee. I shall defend him from his enemies, watch over him at night, bless his days and give him a special guard of angels which will accompany him wherever he is, not because of his merits but because of My Mercy, and respecting My choice, for I have called him and will give him what is necessary to fulfil his Mission.

Have Peace. I bless you. I, the Lord, give you My blessing in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

Keep in your hearts the teachings you have received and transmit them through your conduct, only thus shall you be worthy of being called My disciples. Not for an instant does My hand move away from My chosen one. Peace.

St Luke, Chapter 21, verses 8 to 19.

“Much do I still expect from your work, many souls you must attract to me...”

April 3rd, 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock. Apostles, this is not a time for beautiful speeches but for working; this is not a time for words but for action. Much do I still expect from your work, many souls that you must attract to Me. What better present can you make those who wander through the world looking for peace than to reveal My Mercy and My Love to them? What greater treasure can you offer than the one My Heart holds? What greater richness than that of My blessing? Go, then, without hesitation, and work intensely, this is not a time for speaking but for doing.

I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

Remember that any enterprise blessed by Me shall bear fruit promptly, but any initiative outside My Way shall wither and die without fail. Peace.

St Luke, Chapter 2, verses 8 to 20.

“Catechists, I speak to you”

July 20th, 1990

“Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

In a world destroyed by egoism, receive Peace; in a world steeped in sin, receive My Peace. In a world which has forgotten God, may Peace descend upon you, the Peace that can only be found in the souls that recognise the Lord and on finding Him adhere to Him with all their might, crying over their meanness, asking for pardon for their limitations and resorting to Mercy. I ASSURE YOU, MERCY WILL NEVER BE LACKING FOR THOSE WHO ASK FOR IT IN TIME.

In the structure of the Church there is at present a figure that has been fading and which, in these very difficult times, should be a channel open to My Grace. Instead, the bad performance of this role by many is causing Faith to become gradually colder so that it finally disappears. CATECHISTS, I SPEAK TO YOU who like My Apostles, must take My Word without transforming it according to your whim but just as it is, and without concessions. A special situation has taken place, since there are not many who offer themselves to carry out that task, and far from selecting, priests take on anyone who comes forward, with the results that you can see: each one speaks of his own god but he does not speak of Me; each one teaches the god that his preparation, will or intelligence allow him or simply, according to his wish, but not the entirety of the Doctrine My Church is depositary of. What is more, many dare not to prepare at all what will be said, thinking that the Holy Spirit is going to help them all the time, and that every word coming out of their mouths will be inspired. In the name of this inspiration the grossest errors are committed, and so you have catechists that are in favour of divorce or communion in the hand, or who are anticlerical and even have an affinity with socialism... Everything is valid.

Priests, I call on you today! Beware to whom you give the treasure of transmitting the teaching of Faith, and if you do not find duly prepared people, do it yourselves rather than leave the flock in just anybody's hands.

A general revision is necessary, an updating of Faith is necessary, since it has come to be just a word within My Church. Everything is structure, everything is planning, they are all roles, functions ... there is no place for God in this battle of organisations. The Lord, Owner of the Church, can no longer command it because its high-ranking officers do not respond to the soft voice of the Shepherd but to their own whims. I tell you: if you do not wish to make the Lord's Mystical Body mortally ill, keep well what is good and reject promptly what is bad.

And you, be on the watch, listen and see well what is taught to your children, friends, relatives, acquaintances, and how it is taught, what it is they are told as they prepare for the different sacraments and, as far as you can, complete that formation yourselves, with your word of encouragement and trust in the Holy Mother Church. Fill that void, prepare yourselves well, it is for such reasons that you are Apostles of the Last Times.

Dear ones, remain clean for Me, live saintly for Me, you are the object of all My Love ... Do not turn a deaf ear. Is it perhaps that you too wish to leave Me?

I bless you, receive abundantly and according to your Faith, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.'). May your hearts be flooded with the grace of the Holy Spirit. Have Peace.

St John, Chapter 21, verses 15 to 19

Education

March 6th, 1992 (FIRST FRIDAY OF THE MONTH)

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

I wish to warn you of a special danger. I wish to make you aware of a situation that strengthens the Enemy of souls among you. HE HAS TAKEN OVER ALL THE SUPERIOR SECTORS OF EDUCATION AND CAUSES ALL THE EDUCATION OF ALL THE COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD TO BE DIRECTED TOWARDS PROGRESSIVELY ABANDONING THE FAITH IN GOD. See how the sign of My Cross no longer exists in classrooms, see how religious subjects are no longer treated. Watch how My Gospel is trampled on by those who teach in honour of science. And there is no solution in the opening of schools that call themselves Catholic because these are even worse: THERE MY DOC-TRINE IS TAUGHT IN A DEFORMED WAY and the notion of Church and of God is perverted from childhood. The places where your children can receive a convenient education are scarce, very few. This does not mean that they must not attend then, it means that you must give them a complementary formation, an adaptation of that reality to the Christian reality, since if knowledge is imparted without faith, sooner or later, pride will ensue. Therefore help your children and watch attentively over what they learn, how, when and from whom, to avoid deviations.

It is not necessary to caution you about the action of the Enemy of souls who wants, through bad companions, to transform everyone into his servant. Therefore watch attentively who your children make friends with, and do not be afraid to be too cutting in the face of danger and intervene, because later it will be too late. It depends on you, and you alone, as parents and educators.

If you find professors and teachers who teach worthily, as I ask from you, support them, approach them, help them. The fight is very hard, but I will be present in your midst, do not fear.

Have peace. During the Consecration to My Divine Mercy, My Archangels will pass among you, marking your foreheads. May this sign represent your sincere change of life and your adhesion to Me. I bless you, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

Do not take human friendship into account, do not take your own advantages into account, only concern yourselves with what the Lord wants of your lives, even though it may be a cross. Peace.

Yoel, Chapter 3, versus 9 to 15.

Specials Messages

December 28th, 1988

Daniel, Chapter 3, verses 19 to 24 and 40 to 50.

The Lord says that messages of this type will only be given here (Berazategui city), and must be compiled separately to maintain the spiritual life of the group, although they may also be transmitted to everybody, and especially to priests. We must learn to escape from the flames of hell. Those flames do not affect the one who devotes himself to the Lord in prayer or the one who leads a pious life. This is the meaning of the first reading and of what comes next, but this must be taken separately, what comes now must go separately, as an annex, as a separate message, but it is also for everybody because it is a more profound teaching.

ON PIETY: First Part

You have seen that I ask you for an attitude of piety in My temples and while you pray. Attitudes of piety must start from the heart's depth. Attitudes of piety are not just physical attitudes, they do not consist of gestures only, they consist in the heart's inclination towards grace.

DEFECTS OF THOSE WHO TRY TO LEAD A PIOUS LIFE

First - Excessive externalisation

When pietist measures are exteriorised excessively, content and inward grace disappear, and the result is a senseless theatrical performance.

Second - Excessive human respect

When measures of piety are omitted because they are believed to give reason for scandal, such as women taking off their veils, or people not receiving Holy Communion on their knees, or failing to do reverences to the Holy Sacrament of the Altar or to the images that represent Me and My Most Holy Mother, or not praying the Holy Rosary on their knees with arms stretched out in crosslike position. All of this leads to the destruction of piety.

Third - Excessive pride due to measures of piety
Those who think they are complying with everything and doing everything because they make some gestures and dress like saints and cover themselves like saints, and speak like saints, and inwardly they are far from being saints; remember the wolves disguised as lambs... This leads to a false pride of complacency and pharisaism that is not good.

Combat these vices concerning piety, combat them with all your might. Adopt emergency measures as regards humility, and the Lord says that in your actions of piety you must above all forget your character, you must forget your personal marks, you must forget your pride, you must forget about yourselves. True piety is born from a complete giving of self to Me, for Me in My Mother's arms.'

END OF FIRST PART

PIETY: CORRECT MEASURES TO ADOPT

True piety is first born from a profound and sincere desire of unity with the Lord, from an authentic vision of the Lord's reality in His Majesty, Omnipotence, Omnipresence, and from the vision of ourselves, His followers, in our meanness and steeped in the mire of sin, of immorality.

From this realistic exercise we pass on to a true awareness of God's presence everywhere and at all times, and to our complete humiliation and self-abasement before Him. That will lead us to Holy Fear of the Lord, which is very closely linked to piety, since all the pious gestures are performed before the Lord, for the Lord and because of the Lord, who sees everything and whose Justice is inexorable. From there on every gesture, every action must be guided, firstly, by our love and desire of unity with our God and, secondly, because we know we are the children of His Mercy who, though unworthy of His forgiveness, have been touched by His Grace.

Thus begins a relationship of love with the Lord where gestures and words reflect the abundance of the heart's feelings, and every external action will be the absolute reflection, the very image of what our heart stores.

'Piety and humility are intimately linked whoever is not humble, whoever does not destroy himself to construct himself again in God cannot be humble - we shall talk about humility later. Know that I wish you to be pious, and the sign of piety is, in God's presence, prayer on your knees with abased and compunct heart, and public profession of Faith. That is how you are pious, when you demonstrate that you are My children in front of everybody.'

PIETY DURING PRAYERS

'I wish the pious actions that accompany prayers to be the ones I have asked for: prayers with arms stretched out in crosslike position, covered heads (women) no scandalous fashions, slow prayers, meditated, profound.'

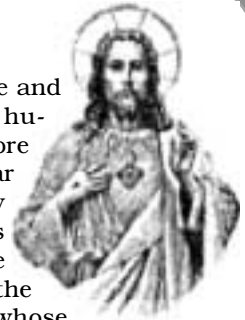

PIETY DURING MASS

'During the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar you must behave as if you were on Golgotha, in front of Me. Would you sing those songs at the foot of the Cross? Would you make those gestures seeing My Blood running down the Cross? Would you talk about other subjects seeing the Lady of Sorrows embracing My Feet?'

PIETY WITH IMAGES

You must have an attitude of respect and piety before the images that represent Me and My Holy Mother, and the Holy Angels and those saints that are here with Me in My Kingdom, but do not exceed these measures so that you are more pious with My images than with Me. Do not kiss the image of My Face if you do not wish to see Me in every brother. Do not kneel before My Cross if you do not wish to carry yours with resignation and love. Do not bow to My Mother if you do not allow Her to teach you how to attain the Kingdom, and know that the Lord changes the manner in Which He speaks as He pleases and when He pleases, as the case and occasion may need, and as do the orators who dominate their audience, My Words and Teachings depend on My audience: if they are lower, low, if they are higher, high, if they are weaker, weak, if they are stronger, strong; to each in, their measure, to each in their need, to each according to what they need. Continue...'

May the Lord bless us. He gives us Peace in the Name of the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit.

On humility...

January 27th, 1988

'He who humbles himself shall be exalted and he who exalts himself shall be humbled.' From this it can be very clearly concluded that humility is the measure that most benefits the soul in its attempt to obtain true elevation in God's eyes, the only authentic elevation, and which implies the attainment of the Kingdom. Humble is he who subdues his character for his own benefit and the benefit of others; humble is he who, before carrying out each work and even if the work pleases him, first thinks whether it will please his Lord and King; humble is he who restrains a gesture or a word not to cause his brother's irritation and so win him over for the Kingdom; humble is he who belittles himself in spite of having the enormous power of prayer, and kneels and asks secretly, and does not raise his hand and say, 'I have obtained this with my prayer,' because without My Mercy nobody is anything. Be clear about this: humility illuminates all the other virtues with a special glow: the Faith of the humble, the Hope of the humble, the Love of the humble. It is not necessary to live in a precarious place to be humble, nor is it necessary to dress in rags or eat every now and then, because pride can dwell even in a heart that is wretched but not humble. Humble is he who, regardless of personal interest, uses all he has, intellectual abilities, physical abilities, spiritual abilities, in submission to Divine Will. Humility is the virtue that is clearly opposite to pride, which is Satan's banner, and that is why it is so difficult to obtain.

MEANS TO ATTAIN HUMILITY

First - Prayer, profound, sincere, wholehearted, continuous, persevering

Second - Profound state of grace, continuous also.

Third - Participation in the Holy Sacraments, with devotion and simplicity and with piety - we have seen piety already.

With these three fundamental weapons adhere to the Holy Church through the Most Blessed Mother and Virgin Mary, Teacher of the humble and Great among the great. Learn from Her, the Queen and Mistress of Heaven and Earth: She never orders, She always asks; She never commands, she always pleads; She never shows off, She always tries not to shine. I have given you other teachers but none like this Mother, and know that humility is the fundamental step, the last rung in order to become a saint. With that same gift together with obedience, the man who is humble observes the provisions of the Holy Church, Mother and Teacher. That is humility, not many words but action; not many wishes but total giving of self; not many speeches but profound prayer.

Nobody can teach anybody to be humble. Each one, within his own measure, must take himself in hand and deny himself; only thus will he feel humble. The unmistakable seal of humility is not to reject the situation that may derive from it, not to reject Divine Will, even if it goes against personal will, and to accept what every day brings as an expression of that Word that saves, heals, redeems and elevates you. Be humble and you shall be Angels.

Further on we shall talk about the presence of My Word in men and the need for men's * apostolate.

Go in Peace; all petitions are heard and all wishes will be satisfied when the time and moment come. Receive the blessing of your Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

* men: from boyhood onwards.

Peace

July 13th, 1988

'Peace to you, My followers. And it is about this that we will talk today: PEACE.

You who live in a world at war, you who live struggling to live, do you know what peace is? Hear what Truth says, hear what the Master teaches, listen and learn humbly, and you will obtain happiness. Peace deserves to be seen from two aspects. The first of them is inner Peace, the profound spiritual Peace that many want to gain and do not know how to obtain because they put their pride in between. Inner Peace is only attained with equilibrium and by being in harmony with the Lord. Peace is not insensitivity, inner Peace is not a mere calming of thoughts, inner Peace is Grace flowing from man to God and from God to man, which causes man to uplift himself and come into intimate contact with his Creator. This brings Peace even in a hostile environment, even in a place geographically prevented from receiving peace; a soldier can have peace in the middle of a war.

The other aspect of this Gift from Heaven is Peace as the relationship among all men, and this is not only absence of violence. Peace, I repeat, is harmony with the Creator: Peace comes from the individual observance of the Lord's Commandments and precepts; Peace is the nexus among the children of the Church; Peace is men knowing that they are God's children and acting as such.

You often hear speeches in honour of this gift but, in reality, there is a peace that comes from fear, and that is not peace; there is a peace of convenience, and that is not the one I give you either. And do you know why I have told you that the Peace I give you is different? It is because My Peace is peace resulting from the reign of love. PEACE IS THE REIGN OF LOVE IN MEN'S HEARTS.

Therefore, you will obtain Peace in your personal relationship with God if love reigns in you; you will obtain Peace in the whole world if love of the Lord reigns in society, in countries, in governments, and if that love prevails over any other interest. Otherwise any other kind of peace is a carnival costume.

Now you have him (1) with you and he transmits each thing to you. Time will come when I will not allow him to be so much among you, I will keep him further away. His graces will remain, but he will have to be more hidden from the World's eyes, for I have brought him into light so you might know him but not for you to use him continually, just for the space of time covering presentation and testing. Later I will turn to account the Gifts I have given him.

Have love, My children. This, My greeting, is equivalent to saying Peace be with you. I bless you. Undertake all work in My Name and I will participate in it, for I am always Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Continue with you prayer.'

Apocalypse, Chapter 3. verses 17 to 22.

(1) The seer.

The need for men's apostolate

March 22nd, 1988

'Where are you running to so hurriedly, My children? Where are you running to? With your haste you may lose sight of Me, and if you do not have a guide, where will you get to? Let Me guide you and do not try to guide Me. Learn to wait for the Lord's times for I know what is propitious for every moment.

Every word that comes out of My mouth and reaches you gives rise to different feelings in each heart, but they all tend towards the same, towards spiritual perfection and the salvation of the soul. It is like the man who plants two different trees, one tall and leafy, the other shorter but with many branches. The leafy tall one bears robust fruit, lustrous and fleshy; the small one bears fruit that are diminutive but very aromatic and sweeten taste. Will the owner reject the former because it does not bear the same fruit as the latter, or the latter instead of the former, or will he prefer to accept each fruit according to its species and will be pleased with and enjoy each one of them.

Well, then, that is the way you are. Men, you are that tall, strong tree, for your fruit take a long time to come out but they are firm, and your branches weather the storm better, and your deep roots, which mean true commitment, are almost immovable when you really identify with something. And you, little ones, your fruit serve to sweeten the Lord's mouth with your prayers, and you are not rejected but, on the contrary, beloved. You too, My daughters, women, bear your fruit, and the Owner of the orchard will reward you accordingly.

I do not separate men from women, I demand from each in as much as I have given. They are two different roads leading to the same destination: one route is strong and fast, well signposted, the other is more winded, with gentle slopes and wooded landscape, but they both reach Me. Men, you face everything with fervour and a readiness to struggle, giving yourselves fully to everything; and you, little ones, you sometimes loiter, engaged in ordinary delights, but you have the ability to reach your goal properly. For this reason, men, I tell you, your Lord, who has come into this world and who, like you, has been man, wishes you to be firm, committed, since when you catch your prey, nobody can take you away from it; and it is because of this that I have installed you as heads of family and that you hold a position of preference in the management of most things in the world, for the initiative is yours and the inspiration is theirs, of the little ones. Inspiration and initiative, which will always go together, like My Mother and Me: She inspires and I give and put into action. Continue being direct and without duplicity if you wish to be among Mine, for that is the way I wish you to be, but calm your spirit, rest a while or you will be too tired for the road. I will be your haven, and allow Me to continue guiding you.

A call to this world of today: the Lord summons men. I need holy men, the Lord calls you...and inform yourselves, get to know all about Me and you will be men fully within My Church. Do not be afraid, religion is not something women busy themselves with, it is God's business. And you, My little ones, never abandon the road of Faith, for all My Works are sanctified due to your initiative in prayer. Let men guide you, and with the graces that come from Heaven, instruct them in depth, with holy inspiration; all will come from Me if you allow yourselves to be inspired.

Between two men, the one that is worth more is the man with more spiritual strength, the one dedicated to God. Only this man is unbeatable, for neither Heaven nor Earth, neither life nor death, neither the abyss nor darkness nor demons will be able to lead him away from his final goal, which is Heaven. Courage, My fishermen, courage! I am with you.

Have Peace. He who loves you blesses you with the Blessing of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Apocalypse, Chapter 22, verses 11 to 17.

*Men from boyhood onwards.

Women from girlhood onwards.

Patience

June 4th, 1988

'Peace descend upon each one of you today, My sheep.

Man of the world, if you want to gain Wisdom, listen. Man who wishes to follow the Law of the Kingdom pay attention and you will attain perfection.

PATIENCE

Patience has three degrees, three different ways of exercising it.

THE FIRST ONE: BE PATIENT WITH YOUR ENEMIES.

You have around you very many people who do not know My Face nor live My Thoughts, people who do not approach the Holy Mother Church, who do not give themselves to Me during their lives. Although undeclared, they are all enemies, and enemies of the salvation of your souls and of their own salvation. Be patient with them, keep firm, do not give ground, for Grace does not give in before evil; on the contrary, in the face of evil it makes a dam, it contains evil and, according to My inspiration, it will finally convert that evil that affects you through them, into a good for them and for you, if you know how to offer it.

IN THE SECOND PLACE: PATIENCE WITH YOUR FRIENDS AND FELLOWS, THE ONES WHO ARE NEAREST TO YOU, THOSE WHO ARE AROUND YOU AND ARE PART OF YOUR LIFE, THOSE TO WHOM YOU ARE LINKED BY AFFINITIES, THOSE YOU LOVE.

You must exercise patience with them also for, as they are human, they, too, have their own defects, and your obligation is to help one another to correct those defects with holiness, with humility, but with the same firmness. Patience is based on firmness of the heart within Faith. AND THE THIRD STEP OF PATIENCE IS WITH YOUR OWN SELVES, CHILDREN.

Be patient with the difficulties and problems that arise from following Me. You often know how to help others but you are not patient with yourselves. You often guide a numerous flock well and you do not even know where to take your poor, thirsty soul.

Be patient and do not expect everything to be all right and to be all right now, but let Me work, time after time, together with you, for your own good.

Patience brings with it the acceptance of God's Will, and know that this step of holiness is a most important sign for the world and a title deed of the Kingdom.

'Happy the patient for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.' Beautiful words, put them into practice.

There is no one better than you to put My Word into practice daily. Do not wait for others to do so in order to learn. Practise on your own. All the gifts, and the gift of patience itself which affects your soul, do so in a special way in each one of you. There are no rules or recipes, I can only give you this: My Blessing and My support. If you accept it it means you consecrate yourselves to My service.

My beloved children, He who loves you blesses you and heals you of all harm. May this Blessing of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit protect you. The words are here and the men are here; may you respond immediately to My Words. Have Peace.'

An imminent danger of war, of a war that is on the point of breaking out...

June 5th, 1998 (First Friday of the month)

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

How agreeable to My Ears is the prayer raised with Faith! How comforting to My Heart are your intentions and your trust in My intervention! For I am your Saviour and Lord, and I rejoice in performing My Mission in you. Do not be afraid to tell Me about your problems, do not be afraid of boring Me with your requests, for I will submerge it all in the unfathomable abyss of My Mercy. Only to Me can you resort in this manner, and it is for this reason that I have placed My Sanctuary here, so that day after day many may learn, as you have, that here, the inscription of this image, 'Jesus, I trust in you', becomes a reality.

Raise fervent prayers for all Humanity, especially on account of an imminent danger of war, of a war that is on the point of breaking out and whose consequences may be fatal for all Humanity. But it is still possible to stop it if, for this intention, you pray with Faith and Confidence, offering sacrifices, and above all, the greatest of all sacrifices, Holy Mass.

Poor Humanity moans and waits for the Lord's Hand to manifest itself, and it will be so when the time comes. It is not given to you to know exactly when it will be, but with the Light of the Holy Spirit you will indeed be able to see its proximity through its signs.

Have Peace. Receive My blessing in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.')

Always look for those things that are really valuable, those that can open the gates of Heaven for you. Peace.

I Corinthians, Chapter 12, verses 1 to 11.

From the beginning and forever it must be so...

December, 15th, 1995

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

From the beginning woman has been created for man and man for woman. From the beginning and forever it must be so. When men seek to unite with men and women with women, they are displeasing the Creator's Divine Will and they are grievously offending His plans for Humanity. I, the Lord tell you: those who maintain, encourage, defend, cause... and even try to increase these grievous disorders among men and women shall not be accepted in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Do you not remember when great punishment fell upon huge cities? Do you not bear in mind that this sin, that this grievous disorder against God's Will, committed by those who pretend to do naturally what is unnatural and normally what is not, has already been punished, and that so it shall be, with the same justice and severity now and until the end of time? Not in vain has it been predicted that the men of this generation would be more perverse than those of previous ones.

Remain firm and away from these practices and from those who carry them out. Do not fall into the error of justifying them, the way others do. Pray for them but do not imitate them. This evil shall bring other very great evils upon all humanity. You will see.

Peace. I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.')

Remain clean in thought, word and deed, and I will protect you always. Once more, Peace.

Apocalypse, Chapter 19, verses 17 to 21.

therefore, respect the difference...

September 15th, 1995

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Today you will be the witnesses and bearers of a complaint that I, the Lord, address to those who diffuse the Devotion to My Divine Mercy.

You know, this means of salvation must reach all humanity urgently so that when they look for Me they find Me there, and may hold on to Me during the painful time that is approaching. It so happens that some, following their own thoughts, have made up another type of prayers with which they intend to identify this Devotion, but it is not so. I have had a confidante, a chosen daughter enlightened by Me. To her I have dictated, word for word, which were the prayers that formed the Chaplet, the Novena, the Act of Consecration, and to her I have shown My image. Over all this, taught directly by Me, I shall keep My promise, since My promise refers to it. But as regards those prayers, petitions and practices made up by pious people, I will only pay them the same attention I pay to the personal prayers of any of My children who wish to speak to Me.

Understand this well: the promises of the Devotion to the Divine Mercy are only valid for those who comply with the prayers dictated by Me directly through Sister Mary Faustina Kowalska. Therefore, respect the difference between something created directly by God and something created by human imagination, even though it has been done with good intention.

Have Peace. See clearly the way I have marked and will always continue to mark, and do not let others deceive you into accepting adulterated coins. I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.')

Every time you choose, choose what is best. If your Lord has shown you the way, why look for others? Peace be to those who value My Sanctuary and My City.

St Luke, Chapter 8, verses 4 to 10.

THE SEVEN FINAL WARNINGS

March 13th, 1992

Peace be with you sheep of My flock.

In accordance with the development of present events and in accordance with the stage you are living through in this, My Work, know that the time has come to make THE SEVEN FINAL WARNINGS known to you, after which only the THIRD UNIVERSAL MESSAGE will be left. These seven warnings are directed to the whole world, but most particularly to this country (Argentina). They will be given in pertinent meetings when I consider it necessary, without previous notice for you, as you will not know when, but they will come. These seven warnings are the ropes My Heart throws towards this human race which does not wish to hear the Voice of its God. REGARDING THE THIRD UNIVERSAL MESSAGE, THIS WILL BE GIVEN IN THE FACE OF THE PROXIMITY OF GREAT EVENTS WHICH WILL BRING AS THE LAST STAGE MY COMING AS JUST JUDGE.

How well I know you! I know this awakens your curiosity and interest, but that is not what I desire. I wish this to awaken your apostolic zeal, I wish this to call you to a greater commitment, to work ever more committed to transmit My Words, to a Faith lived and defended by works. But many of you still have a hardened heart. Meditate, meditate, because the time of decision is already at hand, and to be an adherent of this Work can mean the loss of material life. But I will be with you all the time, and the prodigies and signs that I will perform in this place will not be forgotten by those who witness them, you will see.

Have peace. I bless you and invite you to be authentic followers of this Work in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All say "Amen".)

Do not forget that I am with you, do not forget since I do not forget it. Peace.

Acts, Chapter 16, verses 16 to 34.

FIRST FINAL WARNING

May 1st, 1992

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Do not believe that by pretending before your fellowmen you deceive Me, nor think that I judge you by your outward appearance. Know that I see you and know you deeply, and I know of the disagreement in your hearts with My requests, yet I continue, still giving you time to realise that it is your God who speaks to you. I only warn you: do not try to mock Me!

Be as you must be in My Presence, without worrying about pleasing those around you for good or for bad, and leave, for your own good, leave aside those internal debates which are so bad for you, which prevent you from seeing a tangible reality. This is My Work, understand it, and if you are not in it, it is your responsibility, be well aware of it. Do not blame anyone, you yourselves are responsible for accepting or not the demands this time requires.

Hear the First Final Warning. It is for all those who combat My Work from all sectors, even within it ... YOU HAVE YOUR BATTLE LOST! Now I give you an opportunity to abandon this struggle and put yourselves under My protection. Decide quickly, wherever you are since I place Myself at the head of My army to combat against you, and I will do it in every way of which I am capable, presenting battle on all fronts and neglecting none. Know it, and remember My First Warning. You who want to be enemies of this Work, are My enemies and I am against you in favour of it. And know that when the Lord enters in combat, He does it with all His forces, and all His legions, with all His arms. You choose. And know that before Me, official rank and authority, titles, studies, do not matter, nothing is important before a God who is fighting in defence of the Truth. Plot and lie, scheme and set traps: one by one, they will all be destroyed. Abandon foolishness, see the light or you will perish like the Egyptians in the sea.

First Final Warning: you cannot say later that I have not given you a chance to surrender your pride before Me.

Have peace. I bless you so that you are ready for combat. My Angels will mark your foreheads. These marks will be a sign of triumph for the faithful and heat of Hell for the traitors. Receive My blessing in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer "Amen".)

If the Lord speaks seriously, take it seriously for your own good, since Mercy waits until a limit unknown to you BUT A LIMIT, WHEN ALL IS SAID AND DONE! Have Peace if you are at peace with Me.

St. John, Chapter 15, verses 18 to 27.

SECOND FINAL WARNING

May 13th, 1994

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Listen attentively to the SECOND FINAL WARNING. The pit of hell widens its throat to receive a multitude of souls that fall into it, and which come, most particularly, from two different strata: a multitude of young people 'lost through their Satanistic' vocation and inspired by the very Devil who dominates youth almost entirely, and the priests and nuns who have become lax in their spiritual life, and who today more than ever fall into that place of torment, to My deepest regret.

If this warning reaches you do not let it pass by. IT IS NOW TIME TO FIGHT RAISING YOUR PRAYER WITH FAITH. DO NOT WAIT ANY LONGER, FOR THE FIGHT THAT HAS STARTED WILL NOT CEASE UNTIL THE FINAL TRIUMPH OF ONE OF ITS CONTENDERS. Although the Devil knows he has lost, he struggles to take away as many souls as possible, and you, the entire humankind, must defend yourselves with prayer, resorting to Me, and I, your Lord, shall intervene. Pray much, pray well for your priests and religious who through their infidelity are causing My Church to shake, and for your young people who, owing to their religious indifference, fall into the hands of the worst atrocity: DELIBERATE SATANISM, for I have told you and repeat to you in this second warning: WITH ME OR AGAINST ME ... you choose ...

My blessing for those who receive it with Faith, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.')

Warning is proper to the times when the situation can still be changed, remember it.

Jeremiah, Chapter 12, verses 14 to 17.

THIRD FINAL WARNING

September 16th, 1994

My peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Today I wish to address you in a special way, My spouses, My religious (nuns) consecrated to Me.

Have you forgotten your promise of fidelity so soon that I must remind you that everywhere and at all times, you must present yourselves as My property? Why have you abandoned the external signs of your consecration? Your body as well as your soul must wear at all times the seal of belonging to your God Whom you have espoused for all eternity. You have found other pleasures in the world, then, that are more agreeable to you than your intimate encounters with Me? Who has taught you to be more disposed to change according to the taste of humanity? Your way of dressing, speaking, behaving... Who assures you then, that by being more of the world you will achieve greater successes? Could a good spouse permit His wife to have other loves ...without saying a word... when she has sworn fidelity to Him?

Beloved ones of My Heart, many souls await your example and your work. Do not think that it is a burden to follow a Rule, as it is not to follow My commands. They are a safeguard that you must not escape from; rather, keep them and defend them. You, the seniors, do not allow the spirit of the founders to be scorned; you, the novices, do not dare to try to introduce worldly manners into the house of your Spouse, because you will be repudiated like the foolish virgins who did not fill their lamps with the oil of the Holy Spirit.

Has not My Mother's example been enough for you? Do you think you are pleasing your mothers, Theresa and Catherine, more? So many who are and will always be your example. You are then beginning to hear the voice of the world more than that of your God. Know that if you do not change this attitude many souls will be lost and you will be responsible.

I tell those consecrated ones who keep the Holy Rule of their Order and follow in everything the road of mortification and piety taught by your holy founders: do not fear, you have your Spouse at your side! Come to Me and I will always defend you, since the loyal spouse will never be repudiated.

Take those bad happenings out of My sight quickly and do not put people in My place, because you are Mine, and the world must know it from your appearance and your behaviour, since if you are ashamed of Me do not expect anything from Me.

It is for you, My consecrated ones, that I have given today this THIRD FINAL WARNING.

Peace to you who hear, peace to you who wish to fulfil your obligations, peace to My faithful children. I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.')

The clean soul is moved with love by the Words of the Lord; on hearing the voice of God, the unclean soul trembles with wrath and rejects It. Peace."

I, St. John, Chapter 3, verses 21 to 24.

FOURTH FINAL WARNING

September 13th, 1996

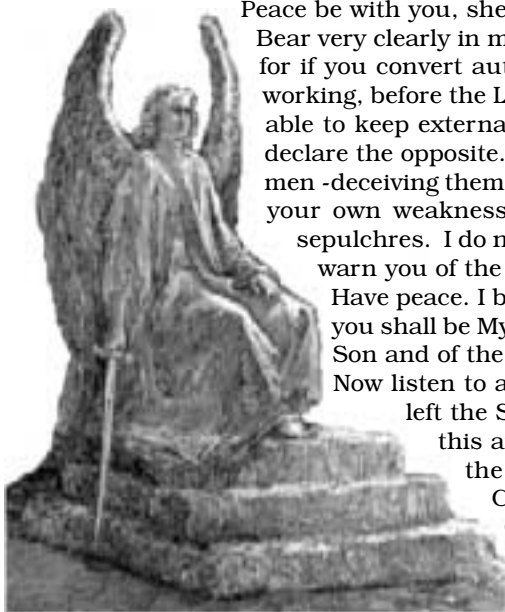

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Bear very clearly in mind the great difference there is between conversion and simulation, for if you convert authentically your heart will change, and your way of thinking and of working, before the Lord and before men. But if you propose to simulate only, you may be able to keep external signs of piety or conversion, but in actual fact your inner self will declare the opposite. And the root of this is your own comfort, since you choose to please men -deceiving them- rather than try to please the Lord, who loves you, by fighting against your own weaknesses, and thus you make peace with them and look like whitened sepulchres. I do not speak to you in this way to discourage you; on the contrary, it is to warn you of the fall.

Have peace. I bless you and so does My Mother who is present here. Be Her joy and you shall be My joy. Receive fortitude and peace in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen.')

Now listen to a new Final Warning: My wrath rises against those priests who have left the Sacrament of Confession aside and do not practise it often. By doing this and by giving up their prayers they put themselves into the hands of the Enemy and they soon fall. Therefore I warn you, priests: go to Confession frequently again and say your prayers in order not to fall! Otherwise you play the role of Judas, sitting at the Lord's table to betray Him. Peace.

St John, Chapter 10, verses 31 to 39.

ABOUT THE YOUNG

May 9th, 1990

"Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

The Voice of your Teacher is heard once more because it is necessary for you, and all men of good will, to remember again the sound Doctrine I left, through My Church, as a holy legacy and which, in the course of time and owing to the interference of this world's prince, has gradually been deformed, lost, forgotten, concealed, so that, day after day, souls will find it more difficult to follow the Way. But I shall not allow them all to perish, for I Myself shall come in the manner I am coming now, and I shall present Myself, as I am doing now, with the light of My teachings, to illuminate the path of those who, with repentant hearts, wish to return to Me and who, with good will, wish to serve the Living God.

KNOW THAT ONE OF THE GREAT PROBLEMS THAT THIS CENTURY'S HUMANITY FACES IS THE REBELLION OF THE YOUNG, WHO HAVE BECOME AN INDOMITABLE MONSTER EVERYWHERE: they have no concrete ideals, no firm foundation, they contribute nothing; it is a youth that is vacuous, temporalistic, sensuous, to such an extent that the Church itself, in an attempt to win these young people over, has disfigured the image of what is sacred, allowing it to be spattered by the mud of mundanity; and so, many young people approach the Church because it is no longer Church, and for it to continue not being Church they destroy the little of what is sacred that might remain in the temples. Even today their scandalous fashions and sacrilegious communions defile My presence in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Search well and, in many communities, you will not find a young person who knows how to approach the Sacrament of Penance with dignity; search well and you will see how difficult it is to find a young person who knows sound Doctrine, and this is because they have been allowed everything provided they fill the empty places, and it is believed that if a temple is full it is a flourishing Church, but it is not so: fill a cemetery with corpses and there will never be life there.

Therefore, pastors of souls, do not bring more pain to My Heart! Restrain sacrileges! Stop that unbridled freedom you have given, seeking thus to befriend the world! Know how to spot those young people who have approached the temples with authentic vocation and have ended up being the object of mockery or being among the ones who have lost heart! Have you not learnt yet? ... Have you not read what I asked from the rich young man? Everything must be given up to enter My Heart: sins, bad company, fashions, vices, bad habits, frequenting places that may be the occasion of sin or scandal.

Now then, what can be done? How many of our beloved young, baptised in My Name, fall into the hands of sects that practise satanic rituals; how many of these beloved young ones join parochial movements hoping to find in them something that will make them really useful to the Lord, and they end up there with merely a longing: they only find what they can find in any mundane organisation, a club for recreation or a meeting place. Not even among the youth that go to parish churches can good company be guaranteed, it is necessary that I tell you that this is so. Would you perhaps need Me to give you examples? Or do you not see what your young people do? To handle this situation three courses of action must be followed:

- In the first one, Parents, you must try to establish a genuine communication with the young, explaining to them the reason and purpose of their lives and the value of their souls.
- In the second place, Educators, you at school and universities must teach cleanly the right value of human science, which does not replace the value of God's Presence but which, on the contrary, enhances even more all Creation as a fruit of Divine Mercy, and you must also teach that knowledge ennobles in as far as it is used for the benefit of fellow men.
- In the third place, Priests, Nuns, Catechists, new and old movements of spirituality, you must review the way you connect yourselves with the young: they do not seek that you be like them. Understand this, what they want is that you guide them and be an example for them to follow. Mimesis is not necessary; they need high ideals they can imitate, not teachers who end up imitating them. What is the value of truth if it is changed every moment in view of the opinion of the majority? Is that the real truth? Show firmness in your convictions, teach the straight road, set the right limits and, above all,

TEACH THEM THE TRUE VALUE OF THE WORD LOVE. Your young ones, My young ones, believe that love is a physical expression and only associate it with a couple's love for each other. Quickly change this false version of the love of God and teach it in its right measure. Remember My Commandments, which have not changed: You shall love the Lord your God, and then, by extension, your neighbour, wishing for him the utmost, which is his salvation.

Well then, there you have them, and there is much to be done: work, each one of you within your capacity. If the young have become perverted there is no future for your humanity; if today's youth do not want to have anything to do with God ..., God will withdraw definitely, because soon those young people will be the entirety of the inhabitants of this planet. Leave marks in them so they will know how to choose, and do not set them values that are not values: money, power, pleasure ... lead nowhere. I keep calling all those who want to join in this fight for salvation, but understand this well: I will not admit any opposition coming from stubbornness or from an attachment to comfort; what is wrong must be changed, what is right must be strengthened, and do not accept any opinion whatever. Listen well: do not accept any opinion whatever from those who do not practise what I have taught through My Word and through My Vicar on Earth (H, H, John Paul II). Obey, then, those who speak and act consistently with My wishes. Only if they are spiritual men will they give true light from whichever position they may occupy, and do not be afraid of anybody for I will be with you always if you remain faithful.

Have Peace, pray and ask for all your needs, and teach others to come to Me with confidence. I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen').

If your example is strong enough, words will not be necessary. My Peace."

Lamentations, Chapter 4, verses 16 to 18.

“why are your hearts troubled?”

April 24th, 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

Why are your hearts troubled? Why do you lose the peace you have within you? Why is your spirit disturbed, if I am with you as I have promised? You know that even if you do not hear My Voice I am here in My Sanctuary, and that from here I bless you and speak to you without words and see your actions, always urging you to convert authentically. Therefore, you have no reasons for sadness, anxiety or fear. Well may the Enemy prepare plans against My Church, he shall not succeed; only those who detach themselves from Me will fall into his hands, but those who remain faithful will be defended by Me like My own glory, Promise of the Lord. Appease your spirit in My Heart, trust in Me. Come to take refuge in the abyss of My Mercy, for I have defeated the sting of death for you, and for you I have opened Heaven, Eternal Happiness. Can you then have doubts as to My Love?

Have Peace, dear sheep of My flock, and receive My Blessing, which is health and strength, which is liberation and peace, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

Before you ask for anything I already know what it is you need, but it pleases Me that you should ask for it out of trust and as a demonstration of love. Do not weaken on the way, fulfil your task like good servants. To you My Peace.

St. John, Chapter 17, verses 20 to 26.

“be careful not to be near these bad shepherds ...”

May 1st., 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

You know well how much My Heart is wounded by sinners, by those who, steeped in the degradation of evil, live their lives as a way to the Abyss. But today you must also learn that there are others that give My Heart greater suffering, and those are the bad shepherds who, out of negligence or for the sake of their own comfort, stop doing their duty of watching over My flock and, even worse, prefer to see it reduced through the death or loss of My sheep so that their job may become much less burdensome. And so, those sheep I have entrusted them with have fallen into the enemy's hands, or have gone astray, or have died, or are running great risks, yet they do not make up their minds to protect them because they are only interested in their own comfort. These are the ones that wound My Heart most deeply... Poor creatures, for poor creatures will they be when the day of their judgement comes, since they will have to render account for themselves and for all My flock, decimated through their fault.

Be careful not to be near these bad shepherds or to respond to their deceptions, for you will have their same fate. Have peace. I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer 'Amen'.) Ask for light from on high to decide correctly in each situation. Peace.

“the hungry lion prowls around the flock, ready to pounce on its prey and devour it.”

May 22nd, 1998

Peace be with you, sheep of My flock.

The hungry lion prowls around the flock, ready to pounce on its prey and devour it. It shows its ferocity through loud roars and its claws are ready to attack. Who will then be the victim it has chosen? The one who, off guard and careless, has moved away from the protection of the Good Shepherd; the insolent one who wishes to mark his own way, confident of his strength. That one will then be the first victim, and many may follow if you do not listen to My advice.

I wanted to warn you just about this, now you know it. Be very careful! I bless you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. (All answer, 'Amen'.)

It is not the person who talks the most that is the most valuable but the one who works for the Kingdom of Heaven, that is the measure. Peace.”

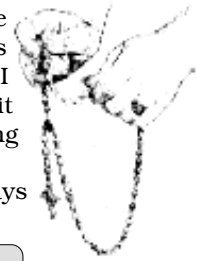

Acts, Chapter 19, verses 8 to 10.

WORLD CHAIN OF CENACLES OF PRAYER

'You will have to multiply your prayers. There is urgent need of prayer in the world, since through prayer the Lord intervenes in the history of mankind, sending His graces, His consolations, His gifts, His love. There is urgent need of cenacles of prayer in the world. If I should entrust you with a more difficult mission you could excuse yourselves, but how simple it is for you to get together with some people and pray, putting your intentions in common; nothing could be simpler or more effective.' (Message of August 5th, 1988).

'The days will come when the only safe refuge will be the houses where people pray; those days are not yet here but they are approaching.' (July 16th, 1987)

If you do not know how to pray the Rosary (it is easy), we will send you instructions.

SECULAR ORDER OF THE APOSTLES OF THE LAST TIMES

By express order of Our Lord the 'Secular Order Apostles of the Last Times' was formed. It is based on a simple physical structure, an especially strong one, and activity at the service of our fellow-men through the 14 Works of Mercy. The Order has its identifying medal whose characteristics have been given by Our Lord in a private Message and confirmed in a Message of September 6th, 1989 (published in "El Buen Pastor" Nº13, page 7).

Enquire so as not to lose this opportunity to serve God confronting the forces of the Antichrist for the salvation of souls.

Note: Priests and religious are excluded as they are already consecrated through their respective ordinations and vows.

HIS HOLINESS JOHN PAUL II

During his visit of November 20th, 1980, to Fulda, Germany, His Holiness John Paul II granted an interview to the reporters of the 'Stimme des Glaubens' magazine. In the course of the same, and among other things, he was asked as follows:

Reporter: Holy Father, what is your opinion of COMMUNION IN THE HAND?

John Paul II: 'There is an Apostolic letter on the existence of a permission valid for this. BUT

I TELL YOU THAT I AM NOT IN FAVOUR OF THIS PRACTICE AND I DO NOT RECOMMEND IT EITHER. This permission was granted due to the insistence of some diocesan Bishops.'

MOTHER TERESA OF CALCUTTA

On March 24th, 1989, Father George Rutlet, in his sermon, spoke about his experience during his dialogue with Mother Teresa of Calcutta. In the presence of numerous priests who attest to the veracity of the same, and who through different media have made it known, he personally asked her, 'Mother, which for you is at present the gravest problem in the world?'

After some seconds' silence she replied with assurance, 'In every part of the world where I have been what has most saddened me and is doing the most harm is people receiving communion in the hand.'

En el Boletín Eclesiástico de agosto, el Arzobispado de Buenos Aires recuerda que "la elección del modo de recibir el Cuerpo de Cristo (en la boca o en la mano) corresponde al fiel y no al ministro" dejando bien en claro que ningún sacerdote puede, en nombre de la Iglesia, obligar a los fieles a comulgar de determinada manera, debiendo conservar la diversidad de formas (de pie, de rodillas, en la mano, en la boca) como signo de libertad para adorar la presencia de Cristo en la Eucaristía.

Monsignor Quarracino,
Archbishop of Buenos Aires

You can choose...

Listen to these words of advise and do not have communion in the hand!...
